NATIONAL WHIG NOMINATIONS.

FOR PRESIDENT. GENERAL WINFIELD SCOTT. OF NEW JERSEY.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT WILLIAM A. GRAHAM, OF NORTH CAROLINA.

RALLY, WHIGS:

The Whigs of the District of Columbia will hold a MASS RATIFICATION MEETING, in front of the City Hall, this (Wednesday) evening, at 74 o'clock, in ratification of the nomination of WINFIELD SCOTT and WILLIAM A. GRA-

Addresses will be made by the Hon. JAMES C. JONES, of Tennessee: Gen. JOHN G. CHAPMAN. of Maryland; CHARLES ANDERSON, esq., of Ohio; Hon. PRESLEY EWING, of Kentucky; and other distinguished friends of the cause.

Come up in your strength, and let our ratification be one long to be remembered. We expect the ladies to grace the meeting with their presence, for whom seats have been reserved.

Let our rallying cry be the Union, Scott, Graham, and Victory!

BY ORDER OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

The Candidates of Our Choice! We are in the field! The Whig nominees for President and Vice President are presented to the people of the most favored nation on earth-the "land of the free and the home of the brave"-for their approbation or rejection. No American will ask, Who is General Winfield Scott? for no American is ignorant of his deeds of glory from 1812 to 1848. Every American has heard of his fame and chivalry from Chippewa to Chepultepec-from Canada to Mexico! Vera Cruz, Cerro Gord , Contreras, Molino del Rev. and the halls of the Montezumas, are monuments to his memory and heroism!! All his splendid triumplis have been tempered with humanity, with mercy and compassion!! All his victories are cvidences of his regard and attachment for the persons and the lives of his gallant soldiers! No unnecessary sacrifice of men ever marked his way! No walls of human bodies were ever trodden down for his glory! No catacomb of human skulls was ever erected to commemorate his deeds of valor! System, prudence, humanity, and skill have ever attended all his movements: and the tears of widows and orphans, which were caused to flow by wars of necessity, fell, unaccompanied by the agony too often known in ruthless battles of wild and reckless ambition; while the hearts of the sufferers were softened and soothed by the kindness, care, and sympathy of the conquering chief!! His enemies (for he, as well as all other good and great men, has them) have never accused him of cruelty in war. Mercy has ever gone into battle with him; and, in the hour of victory, his cnemics were so no longer! His heart throbbed with charity for suffering humanity, whether friend or foe; and all his exertions were then in mercy's cause!

That he is the most accomplished and gallant commander of the age, no well-informed man in this wide world will deny! That he has given numerous instances of his skill and tact in diplomacy, who, that is possessed of common intelligence, will dispute? His talents and acquirements are great and unquestionable; and his habits, manners, and morals are "as pure and unstained as is the snow on the mountain's brow." Yet he will be abused and slandered. So was Washington; and so have ever been the good and great of all nations, from the days of the patriarchs of old to this day!

Republics may be ungrateful: but there is a redeeming quality in the citizens of this glorious Union; and when they know and understand. they will do right, and they will support, uphold. and exalt the hero who has fought and bled and devoted all the days of his life to the honor and glory and interest of the land of their homes, made happy and free by the blood of their fathers!

That Gen. Scott is a firm and true friend of the constitution as it is, and the Union as it is. no same man, of fair intelligence, has ever for a moment doubted. That Gen. Scott is no sectionalist or bigot, his whole life and all his acts and deeds are proofs as strong as those of Holy Writ. Tis felly, madness, to suspect him of want of love for his WHOLE COUNTRY!

No platform of party, no creed, need be published for his guidance. His heart knows "no South, no North, no East, no West."

For the Vice Presidency we have presented to us by the Convention William A. Graham, of North Carolina, late governor of that modest old State, and now Secretary of the United States Navy; a man whose character, like the Chevalier Bayard's, is "sans peur et sans reproche,"--a gentleman in every sense of the word-beloved, valued, esteemed, and respected by all who know him! He was elected governor of his ever had before for such an office, where there was a contest, in any State! His moral worth and silent charities are superior to those of any other human being of the same means. He is, indeed, the pride and boast of the Old North State, and will be the cherished and honored of the Union!

Washington City Young Men's Christian Association.

We are requested to state that the committee constitution, and printed it; and that copies of it tary, Mr. W. C. Langdon.

The Baltimore Argus says that Lola Montez bunged the eye of Mr. George Smith, her maure du nanse, with her fist, making him see stars, at the Holliday-street Theatre, on a late

The Cincinnati Inquirer thinks General Pierce a greater hero than General Scott, because the former was a volunteer, while it was the business of the latter to fight. We cave in !

IT It is stated that the United States government has ordered the Pacific squadron to cruise near Lobos for the protection of American shipping engaged in gathering guano.

Josiah Lawrence, an old merchant of Cino'nnati, died suddenly, on the 21st instant, of disease of the heart.

The Heroic Age.

"I want a hero—an uncommon want,
When every year and month sends forth a new one—
IIII. after cloying the gazettes with cant,
The age discovers he is not the true one."
[Byron's Don Juan.

We have scrupulously refrained from uttering word in disparagement of the merits of the intelligent and talented gentleman named by our opponents as their candidate for the Presidency : but his partisans are so intent either upon duping and deceiving their countrymen or casting ridicule upon General Pierce himself, that abstinence from any remark upon his deserts appears to be totally impossible.

To show the ridiculous efforts in progress to make a hero of him, we will quote from the Democratic papers :

[From the Trenton True American.] OFFICIAL ENDORSEMENT OF THE GALLANTRY OF GEN. PIERCE .- Gen. Scott, in his account of the pattles of Contreras and Churubusco, says:

"Gen. Pillow was now joined by the gallant Brigadier General Pierce, personally thrown out of ectivity, late in the evening, by a severe hurt received from the fall of his horse."

He again says:

"Next I sent Pierce (just able to keep the saddle) to attack the enemy's right and rear." He says again:

"Brigadier General Pierce, from the hurt of the evening before, under pain and exhaustion, fainted in the action." This was kind in Gen. Scott, whose pleasure

t ever is to approve the conduct of his officers and men!] Gen. Worth, in his official report of the same battle, says: "He cannot forego the opportunity to express his admiration of Major General Pillow and Brig-adier Generals Shields, Cadwallader, and Pierce, with whom he had the gratification of concerand co-operation at various critical periods of the conflict.

[Pierce the last!]

Gen. Pillow, [the great Leonidas!] under whose immediate command Gen. Pierce served, in his official report of the same engagement, says:

"Brigadier General Pierce, though badly inured by the fall of his horse, while gallantly eading his brigade into the thickest of the battle or the 19th, did not quit the field, but continued in command of his brigade."

And, in another place, he says:

" Brigadier General Pierce, though still sufferng severely from his injury of the preceding day, nevertheless been on duty and in command of his brigade during the day, and until a few minutes before, when he fainted and was carried

"Bifore" what? Before reaching the field of Churubusco, if we mistake not!

So much for the prose glorification of General Pierce. Now for the poetic!

Here is a portion of the best and most popular of the new Democratic songs. We know not which of their papers has originated it, but we clip it from the Baltimore Argus. Surely a limited capital admits of an expanded business | Bee. in this gum-elastic age-this age of gas, balloone, and home-made heroes! "OUR NOMINEE.

He has come from the mountains, He has come from the mountains, From the Democratic mountains Of the Old Granite State. Of the One Grant Relation He's of true Yankee mettle,
He has frught his country's battle,
'Midst the thundering cannon's rattle,
A hero good and great.

He fought at Churubusco, At Contereas and Below, At Contereas and Below, And triumphed with our heroes At Molino del Rey. At Chepullopec, though wounded, His bold Hurrah resounded, And the Yankee blood rebounded As they won the glorious day."

Is this not too ridiculous! That Gen. Pierce was unfortunate in Mexico, we verily believe; and that, if not the subject of untoward accidents and sickness, he might have fought nobly, is entirely possible. But that he did achieve anything to distinguish him, by either bravery, skill, or good fortune, is so manifestly untrue as to excite no other feeling in the most charitable and magnanmous than that of mingled compassion and ridi-

The partiality of Mr. Polk for General Pierce induced him to offer him first a civil and then a tion, accomplishes more good, relieves more pain, and healt military position, the latter of which he, unfortunately for himself, accepted; and, like General Pillow, he went to the field of action to learn that which he was expected to teach to others, but, unlike that remarkable soldier, did not prove too conceited to receive instruction, and did not, by a dangerous species of frog-like inflation, attempt to swell himself up to the dimensions of his illustrious veteran commander.

And when Gen. Scott was brought a prisoner from the field of his glory and renown, to the honor of Gen. Pierce be it told that he was not among his maligners and traducers; but, looking with pride and admiration upon that noble soldier of many a well-fought battle, whom a jealous and ephemeral administration and its servile creatures sought to oppress and orush, though a partisan in their ranks, he could not stoop to their ignoble task!

Gen. Pierce was undoubtedly a willing and high-spirited volunteer, prepared to peril his life for his country, and to serve ber by his deeds, if in his power; and, though corscious of the performance of nothing entitling him to be honored as a hero, he had too high an appreciation of the humane, the just, and the gallant hero of his age, to stoop to the work of his tracluction and ruin!

We henor General Pierce tog much to permit native State by a majority larger than any one ridicule of the world. Aiming alone at success, even his own partisans to hold him up to the they reck not whether the course they pursue is to result to his credit or dishoner. Even though, as they are well aware, his title to the name of a hero were all that his limited opportunities would permit, it must pale into insignificance when compared with that of the world-renowned hero of nearly half a centur y's service!

"A Plague ou Both Your Houses."

The Philadelphia Sun, a Native American paappointed by this association have completed the per, saks: "If the recent Democratic Convention outraged the feelings, and treated with indiffercan be obtained at the bookstore of Mr. Nourse, ence the pretensions of mi my of its best-known, corner of E and Tenth streets, or of the secre- oldest, and most deserving adherents, what can be said of the suicidal act. of rejecting Millard Fillmore-what palliation or extenuation can be offered for this 'unkindes t cat of all?" But the Sun does not tell where, it is to go. It hates Abolitionism, and can't ; go there; is in a bad locality as an organ of ei ther the Disunionists of the South, or the Mormons of the Great Salt Lake! By standing aloof for a time as a balange-of-power, it may I save its eyes opened to the ight and knowledge of some party. Success to it, wherever it goes!

The Diario of Rio Janeiro of March 13th, the official paper, describes the people of the United States 93 "a set of bankrupts-a nation of savages." They should send us missionaries!

Subscriptions are being taken up in South Carolina to ereqt a recomment in honor of John C. Congress To-day.

SENATE .- The CHAIR laid before the Senate s communication from the Secretary of the Interior, stating his reasons for not investigating the charges filed against the commissioner to run the Mexican boundary.

Several petitions were presented. Mr. SEWARD reported a joint resolution for the purchase of Catlin's Indian collection.

Mr. Mason, from the Committee on Foreign Relations, reported a bill for the relief of the Spanish Consul and other Spanish subjects at New Orleans and Key West, for losses sustained by them in 1851.

The resolution from the House accepting the portrait of Henry Clay, and directing that it be placed in the Library of Congress, was taken up and passed.

The House amendments to the California mint oill were concurred in.

The bill to incorporate the Sisters of the Vistation of Washington city was taken up and ordered to be engrossed.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES .- The House took up the bill appropriating lands to all the States, to be applied by cleven of them to aid in the construction of railroads, and by the others to educational purposes; and, before the morning hour expired, it was ordered to be engrossed for a third reading, and was read a third time.

The Fourth of July.

Next Sunday week will be the 4th day of July. When and how is it to be celebrated? Is it not time our citizens should be thinking of this? We propose that no party spirit be manifested on that day, and that nothing that is not worthy the day may be tolerated.

The Fourth of July is the SABBATH OF REPUB-LICANISM, and we earnestly hope that no republican will desecrate it. Law, order, and enlightened freedom are the characteristics of true Democracy. May they ever guide and preserve us in happiness and prosperity!

Mr. Clay.

We on Saturday last announced the condition of this gentleman as more comfortable than usual. We regret to-day to state that since Sunday he has suffered much, and that, although there is now a cessation of his painful cough, he is very low. The unavoidable use of opiates produces appearances that have perhaps occasioned unnecessary alarms.

Down to Boston, as the Yankees say it, they have not taken the nomination kindly; and we never supposed they would. Mr. Webster has too long and too deservedly been the idol of that city to be partially superseded for any man. But our Boston friends will soon right, and give a hearty support to the men we have chosen. "We are disappointed in the man, but we glory in the platform!" exclaims the energetic little

We always speak of our opponents as Democrats-not as Locofocos. We are as good Democrats as they; but for a great and patriotic party of the American people we desire to use no terms of disrespect. They arrogate an exclusiveness we do not accord to them; yet they are Democrate, and we will not rob them of their good name.

The Democratic editors, who are great on compromises, abominate the spirit of compromise exhibited in the Whig Convention. Unable to compromise among themselves, they had to go outside of the lists for a nomince. What an agreeable party, to be sure!

Our thanks are again due Mr. E. S. SMITH, of Adams & Co.'s Express, for late California papers.

Messrs. Taylor & Maury have sent us Blackwood's Magazine for June-a most acceptable gift always. It is for sale at their store.

The Reason why it Succeeds .- The Mus tang Liniment has attained its enormous popularity, and almost universal use, simply because it gives better satisfac more wounds and sores than any other preparation eve before offered to the afflicted. Every bottle that is used speaks for itself-tells its own tale in the relief it gives and the cure it effects. And the one who has suffered, perhaps long years with pain, without hope of relief, and finds i this Liniment an almost instantaneous remedy, cannot be but speak in its praise, and recommend it in the higher terms to all that he sees suffering. It needs no other re commendation than a trial.

For popular reference, we know of no work which can fill its place. Without any parade of technical terms, it is strictly schenific; the language is plain and simple; the points explained are of great importance; devoted to progress, the cilitor is no slave to theory; he does not shock the general reader by medical ultraisms; while he forcibly demonstrates the benefits of modern improvements. Of all the numerous publications which have obtained such a wide po ularity, as issued by Fowlers and Wells, perhaps none are more adapted to general utility than this rich comprehensive, and well-arranged Encyclopedia.—New Ford Tribune.

For To the Reverend Clergy.-The Washing ton National Monument is now languishing for the want of means to carry it on. The Board of Managers begieve to aggest to the Clergymen throughout the United State that, as the anniversary of our Independence will fall or Sunday, they shall each and all take up collections in their churches for this great and patriotic object.

We are compelled, by necessity, to adopt the rule of some of our contemporaries, and subject every communication to advertising terms. By pursuing the opposite course, our columns have been overwhelmed with articles which possess no interest to the general reader Persons may publish what they please, respecting them selves or friends, within the limits of our advertising numes. But the space reserved for general and politica intelligence shall not be invaded.

Georgetown, June 23-12 m. We would suggest to the Whigs of our town to call a meeting at once, to take into consideration the propriety of reorganizing the old Whig Club. In 1840 and '48, this club rendered considerable service to the party by circulating papers and documents. We have among us a wily foe, who have already commenced using every means to poison the minds of persons living in the surrounding country, by circulating among them the report that Gen. Scott is the candidate of the Freesoil faction of the Whig party, and by applying to him epithets, the utterance of which, against such a public servant as General Scott, should cause the cheek of any American, who is not lost to shame, to crimson with blushes. Let us, then, as Whigs, go to work as one man, and use all honorable means to counteract all such reports, before they produce, in the minds of those to whom they are made, the desired effect.

In Fairfax county, Virginia, near Drainsville, they were visited on Monday, at 2 o'clock, by a severe hail-storm, which did much damage to the growing crops, and some dwelling-houses also were injured by having all the lights broken out of the windows. In some places it fell in such large quantities that it could be found lying in piles the next morning.

Professor Salomon is now engaged at the Georgetown foundry, constructing an engine of some 250 horse-power, to be propelled by gas. The measles are very prevalent in our town. There has also been a number of cases of diarrhoa, one of which proved fatal.

OF THE RIGHTS OF THE PEOPLE.

In the third week of June, 1852, will be commenced, in the city of Washington, a Weekly Campaign Newspaper, under the above title.

It will be devoted to the maintenance of genuine republican principles as avowed and practised by the great WHIG PARTY of the United States; to the preservation of the NATIONAL Union, and of the Rights of the States and the RIGHTS OF THE PEOPLE under that Union; and in an especial manner to the election of GENERAL WINFIELD SCOTT, as the nominee of the Whig National Convention, to the Presidency of this Republic.

It will be the agreeable duty of the editor to dwell and to descant upon the merits of a man around whose brow are entwined the laurels gathered on many a victorious field. During the long period of forty years his talents, his valor, and his humanity have nobly illustrated his country's honor; and the patriotic masses, the toiling millions of our widely-extended country, will, on the seventh of November next, arise in their power and majesty to bestow their suffrages upon their honored fellow-citizen-the hero, the patriot, and sage-and to proclaim THE GRATITUDE OF A REPUBLIC!

TERMS:

THE RIGHTS OF THE PEOPLE will be published once a week-from the third week of June until
